Visit the Austin State Capitol Visitors Center

In the heart of downtown Austin is the beautiful, castle-like structure of the Austin State Capitol Visitors Center. This building houses the Texas legislature and the office of the governor of Texas and is the oldest state office building in Texas. In 1970, the building was added to the National Register of Historic Places and in 1986 became a historic landmark. When visiting this historic building, stay just 11 miles away at one of the premier hotels near the Texas State Capitol.

The Texas State Capitol houses nine exhibits, including:

- The O. Henry Room
- Beyond the Dome: Hidden Places and Secret Places in the Texas State Capitol
- XIT- A Capitol Deal
- The Capitol Time Line
- Land Office Exhibit
- Dome Model: Displaying architectural details of the Capitol

Explore the rich history of Texas in this historic monument. While staying at this North Austin hotel, learn about the unique architectural details of how the double-dome building was constructed, as well as the many secret passages found throughout the Capitol building. Visitors can also learn about how the Capitol was financed in the 1880s as well as interesting Texas facts. Guided tours are about 45 minutes in length and occur daily. Self-guided literature and pamphlets are also available.
