- 2 Take the middle way straight to the ruins of the 14th-century Franciscan Church.
- 3 Choose a pass that leads right to the ruins of the 13th-century Dominican Church, one of the islands most important monuments.
- 4 If the weather allows visit the Palatinus Strand on the other side of the island.
- 5 Crossing the island again, pay a visit to the oldest building of the island, the St Michael's Church.
- 6 Continue towards the northern end of the island. Behind the hotels on the left side you can take a rest at the delightful Japanese Garden.
