two unique venues

Houghton House - Stately Elegance

The Houghton House was once the home of industrialist and philanthropist, Arthur A. Houghton. This stately Georgian style Manor House preserves a more gracious way of life. Its quiet charm will steal your heart away! Brides will become the hostess for family and friends for the weekend amid antique furniture and formal 18th century gardens. Exchange vows in the Japanese Cherry Tree Grove. The Bride and Groom can then enjoy a few moments of peace and serenity by the fountain in our private walled garden before joining their guests at the reception! Guests may enjoy taking a bike ride over to Wye Island, which offers pastoral and woodland views with hiking and biking paths.

River House - Contemporary Chic

The River House surpasses the expectations of your most discriminating guests. River House guests will enjoy the best in modern comfort and architecture in a secluded setting on the banks of the Wye River. Guests will feel pampered in our fully renovated guestrooms, with spa style bathrooms complete with lush terry towels and bathrobe. This open and airy homelike setting will invite your guests to mingle in the cozy sitting rooms, state of the art fitness facility and outstanding game room, with three big screen TVs. Guests will enjoy the relaxing outdoor pool adjacent to the game room.
