Cocktails

The perfect Martini

Since a Martini is so personal, it is tempting to offer the simplest recipe of 4cl Gin or Vodka and Vermouth to taste the following have exact proportions, which to begin on individual Martini odyssey.

Dry Martini 60

4 cl Gin
Splash Dry Vermouth

In a Shaker half filled with ice, add the Vermouth first, then the Gin. Stir. Strain into a Martini glass.

Serve with two olives or a twist of lemon.

Vodka Martini 60

4 cl Vodka
1 cl Dry Vermouth

In a Shaker half filled with ice, add the Vermouth first, then the Vodka. Stir. Strain into a Martini glass. Served with two olives or a twist of lemon.

For a drier drink reduce the Vermouth.

I'll take Manhattan

The Manhattan, rival to the Martini, is a classy drink in its own right. It's named, aptly, after the Manhattan club where it was invented and perhaps first served at a gubernatorial celebration in 1894. Unlike garrulous Martini drinkers, fans of the Manhattan allow for both sweet and dry versions. A Manhattan retains its name even if Rum, Tequila or Southern Comfort is substituted for Whisky.

Perfect Manhattan

68

- 4 cl Blended Whisky
- 1 cl Dry Vermouth
- 1 cl Sweet Vermouth
- Dash Angostura Bitter

Combine Whisky, Vermouths and Bitter in a mixing glass half filled with ice. Stir and then strain into a rocks glass.

Negroni

68

- 2 cl Campari
- 2 cl Sweet Vermouth
- 2 cl Gin

Shake all ingredients with ice, strain into Martini glass, garnish with slice of Orange.

The Collins Family

Think of a Collins as a sour with a touch of the bubbly club soda over ice. The Tom Collins, made with Gin, is a classic. The John Collins, created with Whisky follows the patterns along with Vodka Collins, Rum Collins and Tequila Collins. This elegant family is served in its namesake glass, the Collins, a frosted highball glass.

Tom Collins

60

4 cl Gin
2 cl Lemon juice
1 tsp Fine sugar
 Soda Water

Combine the Gin, lemon juice and sugar in a shaker half filled with ice. Shake well. Strain into a Collins glass nearly filled with ice. Add Soda water. Stir. Garnish with cherry.

Whisky Collins

60

4 cl Whisky
2 cl Lemon juice
1 tsp Fine sugar
 Soda Water

Combine the Whisky, lemon juice and sugar in a shaker half filled with ice. Shake well. Strain into a Collins glass nearly filled with ice. Add Soda water. Garnish with cherry and orange slice.

The Fizz

The Fizz gets its fuzziness from club soda and its romance from the famous Gin Fizz, a creation that conjures up vision of languid and side-along glances. Brandy, Apricot Brandy and Gin make splendid fizzes.

Gin Fizz

60

4 cl Gin
2 cl Lemon juice
1 tsp Fine sugar
 Soda Water

Combine the lemon juice, sugar and Gin in a shaker half filled with ice. Shake well. Pour into a highball glass partly filled with ice and add Soda. Stir and garnish with lemon.

Pineapple Fizz

60

4 cl Light Rum
2 cl Pineapple juice
1 tsp Fine sugar
 Soda Water

Combine the juice, sugar and Rum in a shaker half filled with ice. Shake well. Pour into a highball glass partly filled with ice and add Soda. Stir and garnish with lemon.

Beat the heat: tropical drinks

Picture palm trees sowing like dancers in the sultry night breeze, casting shadows on the sand in the moonlight. Think of languid afternoon at the beach, your eyes gazing on turquoise seas and silence broken only by waves caressing the shore and tinkle of glasses. If you have a taste for fantasy, sip a tropical drink and heat up your imagination.

Daiquiri 60

- 4 cl Light Rum
- 2 cl Lemon juice
- 1 tsp Fine sugar

Combine Rum, juice and sugar in a shaker half filled with ice. Shake well. Strain into a Martini glass.

Mai Tai 68

- 4 cl Light Rum
- 1 cl Triple sec
- 1 tsp Almond syrup
- 2 cl Grenadine
- 2 cl Lime juice
