Northern Kentucky Convention Center

The Northern Kentucky Convention Center is located at Covington Landing along the banks of the Ohio River. It is situated at the heart of a rapidly expanding business and entertainment district just across a picturesque 19th Century suspension bridge from downtown Cincinnati.

This 204,000 total square foot multi-purpose facility has 110,000 sq. ft. of meetings, exhibition and social function space. The center is designed to make it as convenient and efficient as possible for meeting, conference and exhibition planners.

Situated at the convergence of three major interstates, Northern Kentucky is a transportation center. The Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport, Delta's second largest hub, offers over 500 daily departures to over 100 cities non-stop. Northern Kentucky offers a blend of cosmopolitan sophistication and Southern hospitality, and this is reflected in the staff customer service focus. We will do our best to ensure a most successful event.
