Top Attractions in Irving, Texas

See the Mustangs of Las Colinas

A must-see for visitors, the Mustangs of Las Colinas is one of the largest equestrian sculptures in the world. Located in William Square in the Las Colinas Urban Center, this magnificently realistic bronze sculpture showcases nine wild mustangs galloping across a stream.

Experience the Centripetal Force of Six Flags Over Texas

Six Flags Over Texas boasts more than 100 thrilling rides, rollercoasters, and attractions for people of all ages. Families with young children can enjoy kid-friendly shows, more than 30 exciting rides, and a Looney Tunes USA themed area.

Explore the Fort Worth Stockyards

Home to the Stockyards Championship Rodeo, the Cowtown Cattlepen Maze, the Texas Cowboys Hall of Fame, the Grapevine Vintage Railroad, and much more, the Fort Worth Stockyards make up the area's National Historic District. Taste authentic barbecue, shop for western wares, or have a drink at a local saloon.

Shop & Play at Grapevine Mills Mall

With more than 180 stores, the Grapevine Mills Mall offers 1.6 million square feet of shopping, entertainment, and dining options.

Visit Bass Pro Shop Outdoor World for your fishing, hunting, and camping needs. Pick up new shoes at the NIKE Factory Store. Enjoy dinner at the Rainforest Café. See over 5,000 amazing creatures at the Sea Life Aquarium. Build your own world in the Legoland Discovery Center. Whatever you choose, this hotspot can help make your vacation extraordinary!

Enjoy the West End Marketplace

The Historic West End is Dallas' premier destination to live, dine, shop, and play. As the area's oldest entertainment area, the West End features street festivals, outdoor concerts, and block parties the whole family can enjoy.

Catch a Game at Rangers Ballpark

Built in 1994, this 49,170-seat open-air ballpark is home to the Texas Rangers. Sports fanatics will love the 1.4 million square foot stadium. The proximity of fans to the field is among the closest in the major leagues.

Make a Pit Stop at the Texas Motor Speedway

The Texas Motor Speedway is a Nascar lover's dream-come-true. Watch a live race or jump behind the wheel of a real Nascar and test your skills on the track. Six driving schools, including the Mario Andretti, Richard Petty, and Dale Jarrett racing experiences offer up to 80 laps of blazing fast fun. Annually, Texas Motor Speedway hosts the AAA Texas 500, the Samsung Mobile 500, and the Firestone Twin 275s.
