

THE SHELBOURNE
DUBLIN
A RENAISSANCE HOTEL

Dear Guest,

We are delighted to welcome you to The Shelbourne Dublin, a Renaissance Hotel. To ensure you have a truly memorable stay we would like to take this opportunity to inform you of our unique Genealogy Butler service.

If you believe you have come from Irish roots there are many aspects of your Irish ancestry that you can trace with relative ease through state documents and/or church records in the various Dublin based institutions that are in very close proximity to The Shelbourne Hotel.

If you are curious about your Irish ancestry, why not avail of the services of the Genealogy Butler? I can help you make the best use of your time during your stay in Dublin, by guiding you to the sources where you are most likely to find results. The Shelbourne Hotel is unique in being the only hotel in Dublin to offer this service. As a qualified and seasoned professional genealogist I welcome the opportunity to guide you towards your research.

The Shelbourne Hotel is rooted in history and since its establishment in 1824 it has seen many world famous guests pass through its stately entrance, including Princess Grace Kelly who was the descendant of an emigrant from County Mayo. Her forefather was not alone in having to leave the land he loved. Economic and social hardship, famine, as well as political upheaval over hundreds of years caused millions of Irish to leave for America, Britain, Australia, Canada and New Zealand and even parts of South America. Thankfully, millions of their descendants rose to the challenges of their new lives – and became hugely successful in their new countries.

Your family's history is part of Irish History and as Genealogy Butler I look forward to helping you to fill in the gaps in your knowledge and to unravelling the threads of your connections. What better place to start than in the historic rooms of The Shelbourne!

Yours sincerely

Helen Kelly
