

CONFERENCE TESTIMONIALS

- Backup Marketing

"We use the Marriott in Ashbourne on a pretty regular basis and I have never once had any issues. From an events company perspective it is imperative that we get support both in the build up to and on the actual event day. I find the continued support from all members of the Marriott Ashbourne team to be outstanding. Nothing is an issue and the friendliness and co-operation from all personnel is superb. The luxury of the accommodation facilities and the standard of food served whether a conference lunch or a gala dinner are top class. I regularly encourage my clients to use this superb facility. Ten minutes from the M50 also means the location is perfect. I am very happy and confident to recommend this lovely hotel with it's professional crew."

- Saica Packaging

We have found the conferencing facilities to be first class, our needs have all been catered for, however complex. The staff has always been exemplary and I would have no hesitation in recommending the Ashbourne Marriott for all your professional conferencing and hotel needs."

"The level of service at the Ashbourne Marriott is of the highest standard. I use the conference facilities on a regular basis and each time I can focus on the programme which we are delivering, safe in the knowledge that the efficient conference staff will ensure that everything is organised on time .. The conference facilities, bedrooms and catering are excellent; I have recommended the Marriott Ashbourne to many of my colleagues".

- Sartorius

"Sartorius has been using the facilities at the Marriott Ashbourne since it opened in 2007. In fact we were the first company to hold a meeting there on their opening day. The management and Staff have always provided excellent service with wonderful facilities and we continue to use the hotel to this day, both for our own meetings and for staff and visitors to stay. We also use the hotel for outside meetings with customers.

The hotel facilities meet all the required business needs with an ideal location, comfortable rooms, leisure centre and free WI-FI access . The flexibility in their staff attitudes makes meetings very easy to organise and on every occasion, and there have been many, we have been more than satisfied.

The restaurant and bar provide a good and efficient service with good choice of menu both for private dining and business functions. We have also used the Hotel for a Christmas celebration which was well received by all our staff and guests."

- Tahitian Noni

"We had a great event at the Ashbourne Marriott earlier this year. It was a Las Vegas themed evening and the staff were very helpful not only in ensuring the meeting itself went smoothly by being on hand to help throughout the event but also in suggesting potential suppliers and taking our deliveries prior to the event. I wish all meeting & event staff were as accommodating as those at the Ashbourne Marriott."

- Dermott Brennan & Associates

"DBASS chose the Marriott Hotel Ashbourne originally for convenience and proximity to our office. Now we use it all the time for large and small functions/meetings because of the service, the professional manner in which it is ran, and the friendly staff. We would strongly advise any one to give it a try."

- Directski.com

"For Directski.com, the Marriott Ashbourne represents an oasis of clam within easy striking distance of Dublin Airport and our offices in Blanchardstown and Belfast. The no-hassle setup combined with attentive staff means our meetings held in the Marriott are far more productive than when held in our own offices. - Anthony Collins, CEO, Directski.com"
