HANOVER MARRIOTT PARTNERS WITH CELEBRITY EVENT PLANNER FOR WEDDINGS, CORPORATE PARTIES AND EVENTS

Whippany, New Jersey (July 1, 2009) – For those couples who want to add star style to their wedding in New Jersey or party planners who seek a celebrity event planner for their charity events, corporate parties, or other special occasion celebrations, Hanover Marriott in Whippany has just announced a partnership with Julie Conley of Warren Country Events (www.WarrenCountryEvents.com) who is one of the featured wedding planners on the The Style Network's hit show "Whose Wedding Is It Anyway?"

"Julie is now available by request to work alongside the Hanover Marriott Sales & Event Team to share with us her more than 20 years of expertise coordinating some of the Tri-State area's most exclusive corporate and social gatherings," notes George Lazo, Director of Sales & Marketing at the Hanover Marriott.

Ms. Conley has worked in the event planning industry for over 23 years and has coordinated special events and weddings since the start of her own catering business at age 19. A New Jersey native, Conley grew up helping in her family's restaurant business and recognized early on that she had a penchant for party and event planning. A flair for floral and event design prompted her to open Warren Country Florist in 1991, which now serves as the hub for her thriving event planning business. Conley has been called upon to coordinate elaborate weddings, corporate affairs and celebrations of all kinds.

Conley, a celebrity wedding planner, has been tapped to appear in a special one-hour episode this month as part of the program's celebration of its 100th show. Conley is one of six planners chosen to coordinate one of "funniest and craziest" weddings, according to the network. Last season, Conley helped three couples tie the knot on the revealing reality show series, the longest running and top-rated program on the Style Network. "Whose Wedding is it Anyway?" digs deep into the hectic lives of wedding planners and expert party pros as they attempt to create dream nuptials for brides and grooms--often under less than ideal circumstances.

For an additional fee, couples, corporations, or party planners booking an event at the Hanover Marriott can simply request Ms. Conley's consulting services to help plan for their wedding or special event.
