Members of the Marriott Family Attend Grand Re-Opening Party of Renaissance Newark Airport Hotel

Elizabeth, N.J. (June 15, 2011) — General Manager Jeff Plamondon welcomed 150 top clients as well as members of the Marriott family last Wednesday evening as he celebrated the grand reopening of the 397-room Renaissance Newark Airport Hotel following a multi-million dollar renovation.

The hotel enlisted the talents of chefs from Marriott properties throughout New Jersey and Philadelphia in order to provide guests with a culinary voyage around the world — with accompanying wines — from Portugal to Spain to Italy and New Jersey to feature the various ethnic backgrounds represented in the city of Newark.

The Renaissance Newark Airport Hotel features 397 lavish guest rooms and suites comfortably equipped with refrigerators, laptop safes, connectivity panels, and 37" flat panel HD televisions; 17,000 square feet of meeting and event space; an indoor pool; 24-hour fitness center; Ironbound Grill restaurant; and den/library for relaxing.
