

How to Plan a Trip to Newark, New Jersey

Newark, nicknamed "The Brick City," is currently New Jersey's largest city. This culturally diverse city has exploded with cultural attractions, music performances, fine dining and entertainment. More and more visitors are stopping by to check out this dynamic New Jersey city.

Book Accommodations:

Step 1

Visit the SpringHill Suites Newark Liberty International Airport web site <http://www.marriott.com/ewrsa> to get help booking accommodations at SpringHill Suites Newark Liberty International Airport.

Step 2

Consider staying near Newark Airport, complimentary airport transportation is provided from P4 and it is an ideal location for visitors who plan on visiting Newark as well as New York City. Here, you will be close to both destinations while enjoying luxury accommodations and maximum convenience.

Know Your Destination:

Step 1

Immerse yourself in the third oldest city. After Boston and New York, Newark, New Jersey's history stems back to 1666, when it was founded. The city quickly became a major manufacturing center.

Plan your Visit & Check Out Area Venues:

Prudential Center (www.prucenter.com) with NJ Devils, concerts and other entertainment

NJPAC (www.njpac.org) with concerts and performances of many different genres attracting a variety of different demographics, New Jersey Symphony Hall (www.njsymphony.org), Red Bull Stadium (www.redbullarena.us).

The Newark Art Museum - Enjoy the uniqueness and beauty (newarkmuseum.org) of the Tibetan Art Collection, where you will see the biggest and most varied collection of its kind in the country.

Jersey Gardens Outlet Mall (www.jerseygardens.com) is a two-level indoor outlet mall and is the largest outlet mall in New Jersey, and much closer to New York City than its largest outlet mall competitor, Woodbury Common.

Ironbound Section of Newark - Bask in the city's Spanish and Portuguese culture. One of Newark's most popular neighborhoods, this area offers a variety of restaurants with mouth-watering Spanish, Portuguese and Brazilian food.

Arrange Transportation:

Step 1

Fly directly into Newark Liberty International Airport (<http://www.panynj.gov/airports/newark-liberty.html>), complimentary airport transportation is provided from P4 and the airport is located about 5 miles from downtown Newark.

Step 2

Explore the city by foot, cab or train. Newark offers many convenient transportation (www.njtransit.com or www.panynj.gov/path) options that you can use when visiting the many attractions downtown.

SpringHill Suites by Marriott – Newark Liberty International A/P | 652 US Highway 1 & 9 South, Newark, NJ, 07114
Hotel 973.624.5300 | Fax 973.624.3355