

The Glasgow Marriott, easily accessible by car from the M8 and 10 minutes drive from Glasgow International Airport, has a range of meeting rooms and is the perfect venue for a business event. Located in the heart of the city, just 1½ miles from the Scottish Exhibition and Conference Centre, the hotel is well placed for the city's fine architecture, shopping, museums and theatres, making it an excellent choice for leisure breaks. The spectacular scenery of the West Coast is also within easy driving distance.

Directions
Eastbound leave M8 at Junction 19 on to Bothwell Street. Take second right on to Blythswood Street. At the junction go straight across, then first right on to Cadogan Street. Turn left on to Douglas Street then right on to Argyle Street and the hotel is on the right.
