

Aquarium

Aquarium Hurghada is a lovely place to take your family and children. Tourists come to visit the place to watch the colorful fishes that belong to the famous Red Sea. Red Sea, one of the oldest water bodies in the world, has been preserving ample of these fishes, marine creatures and also the famous coral reef. The Aquarium in Hurghada brings all these unique creatures of the sea out in the aquarium for the tourists to view them.

Aquarium, Hurghada is one of the most popular Hurghada Tourist Attractions. People throng to this place to get a glimpse of the attractive marine fishes. People interested in studying the marine plants and fishes can visit this aquarium in order to gain more knowledge about the habitats of these beautiful fishes and also about the formations of the famous Red Sea. The displays in the aquarium are very well preserved and properly show cased. You should see how these creatures are fed and maintained. There are labels stating the generic and specific names of the fishes, so that you can recognize and learn about each and every species of animals.

Aquarium, Hurghada gives you a prior knowledge about the kind of marine lives you can expect underwater. Especially for people who want to go snorkeling and scuba diving, the dangerous plants and animal species won't come as a surprise. None other aquarium in the world has such a wide ranging collection of sea creatures in one place. This is truly a fascinating sight for the tourists who are unknown to the place and no nothing about the Red Sea.