BY THOSE WHO INSPIRED ME...

Penne with Tomatoes

Aubergines, Mozzarella, Pecorino romano

Gordon Ramsay: Scottish chef, television personality and restaurateur. One can smell the flavor of aggression in his preparations - a true reflection of his personality. His passion for food and quest for perfection is what inspires me the most.

Fish Fillet simmered in Turmeric Scented Coconut Curry aka Alleppey Fish Curry

My Mum: Sounds clichéd, but she is the best chef I have ever met. On any day, her food has a key ingredient called love, which makes a world of difference. It makes me forget my table manners and simply indulge. Mom appétit!

English Fish and Chips With Tartar sauce

Jamie Oliver: He is a phenomenon in the world of food. His idea of picking the best quality ingredients and keeping cooking simple has inspired people to spend more time in the kitchen - and even start growing their own food.

Roasted Spring Chicken With creamy mashed Potatoes, Asparagus and Red wine jus

Gordon Ramsay: It is amazing how he raises the bar and delivers every time, retaining the classics as classics. May be the reason why he has earned so many Michelins and remains a key inspiration for many including me.

Beef Tenderloin Tataki onion ponzu and Garlic chips

Nobu: A celebrity chef and restaurateur, he is well known for his fusion cuisine. For him, cooking is delighting customers with small surprises that help them discover their dormant tastes. He communicates with every dish in his own distinct style.

NZ Lamb Rack Black pepper and Mint risotto

Marco Pierre White: At 24, he became Head Chef and joint owner of Harveys with a kitchen staff that included the young Gordon Ramsay and Heston Blumenthal. By 33, he became the youngest chef to be awarded three Michelin stars. His philosophy of "just good food" is my best inspirational dope. Local taxes
