

the grape – wine to love

indicative of cuisine designed around boutique local purveyors, our wine selections have the same heart in mind. along with some of the big favorites the masses have embraced, we have chosen a selected amount of boutique and interesting wines that stem from family-run, product conscious wineries that put quality first and have passion as their center of life.

we believe that as you take your journey through our list, you need the ability to taste the story of a small winery that grows a modest harvest of grapes that are nurtured with great sun, careful attention and only the best intentions in mind. the golden juice is squeezed and blended by masters who only care about the sheer joy of how a well-matured grape juice feels as it swishes around in your mouth, not how many bottles can be produced for each acre.

As food connoisseurs, we have selected a group of wines that fit well with the food we love to eat. great acidity, great fruit, well balanced and spice, we love to have you taste the fire that ignites from a perfect pairing of food and wine. enjoy a friendly list that focuses on what really matters – an amazing wine that you will always remember!
