Adult: USD35, Child: USD25

Single person traveling alone: USD45, Time: 09.00 –16.00 hrs

This tour is created specially for those who have never been to Indonesia. It provides a glance of Indonesia, the history and the people. This tour featuring the following objects and attractions:

NATIONAL MONUMENT(MONAS)

This 132-meter-high column towering over Merdeka Square is both Jakarta's principal landmark. Topped by a glittering flame symbolizes the nation's independence. The flame is gilded with 35 kg of gold leaf. The basement of the monument houses an exhibit of 48 dramatic dioramas depicting the history of Indonesia from prehistoric times to the present.

BATIK SHOP

Stop and visit to one of the Batik shop in Jakarta to find Indonesian fine selection and interesting permanent exhibition of BATIK, traditional cloth from Indonesia, in classic and modern designs.

BEAUTIFUL INDONESIA IN MINIATURE PARK

An extensive theme park set in over 100 hectares on the outskirts of Jakarta; the Taman Mini Indonesia Indah (Beautiful Indonesia in Miniature Park) is Indonesia's answer to every visitor's prayer to see the magnificent archipelago in just one day. All the Indonesian islands are realistically reproduced in miniature in a central lake and around the lake are pavilions to represent the 26 provinces in Indonesia. Each pavilion is representative of each province from the traditional architectural style in miniature to a wonderful display of cultural items and exhibits.

MUSEUM INDONESIA

Inside the Taman Mini Indonesia Indah is Museum Indonesia, a three-story edifice in traditional Balinese architecture. The museum houses a vast collection of Indonesian contemporary arts and crafts, traditional costumes from the various regions, puppets, musical instruments, masks, and daily life utensils.

NOTE: Taman Mini Indonesia Indah is closed on Monday, instead a visit to Monument Pancasila Sakti at Lubang Buaya is made.

PT.02 –KAMPOENG The Old Batavia Tour

Daily: 7 hours, Minimum: 2 pax

Adult: USD 30 Child: USD 20

Single person traveling alone: USD40, Time: 09.00 –16.00 hrs

Jakarta began its history in the 14th century as a small harbor town and today become a bustling metropolitan city. Old Batavia's heart is in the 'Kota' area now. Kampoeng the Old Batavia Tour presents the uniqueness of Jakarta with various blends of culture and traditions. This tour featuring the following objects and attractions:

NATIONAL MONUMENT (MONAS)

The National Museum, built in 1862, is the best museum in Indonesia and is reputedly one of the finest in Southeast Asia. The museum has an enormous collection of cultural objects of the various ethnic groups –costumes, musical instruments, model houses, numerous fine bronzes from the Hindu-Javanese period, as well as many interesting stone pieces salvaged from Central Java and other temples. There's also superb display of Chinese ceramics dating back to the Handynasty which was almost entirely amassed in Indonesia. (Monday & Public Holidays closed. Visit the National Monument instead).

GLODOK

Glodok is the center of Jakarta's China Town. It is now banking, hawkers, trading and entertainment center. Visit to Petak Sembilan Chinese temple dedicated to the Buddhist goddess of mercy, Kuan Yin. Built around 1650, it was one of the earliest centers of worship for the Batavian Chinese.

KOTA INTAN DRAWBRIDGE

In the 18th century, Kali Besar area was a very stylish residential neighborhood along the great canal of Ciliwung river. At the north end of the Kali Besar lies a small 17th century Dutch drawbridge, the last in the city, called the Kota Intan Drawbridge.

SUNDA KELAPA HARBOR

This 500-year-old harbor area was a vital link to the markets of the outside world for the 15th Century kingdom of Pajajaran. Since then this port has belonged to the Portuguese and Dutch. Though little remains of bustling old Sunda Kelapa except the name, the harbor is still one of the most important calls for sailing vessels from all over Indonesia. The magnificent and brightly painted Makassar schooner called Phinisi are still an important means of transporting goods to and from the outer islands. This is one of the finest sights in Jakarta.

FATAHILLAH MUSEUM

Built in the 16th century, the museum is housed in the old town hall of Batavia, which is probably one of the most solid reminders of Dutch rule to be found in Indonesia. It provides the historic background of Jakarta through a display of maps and antiques, including furniture and porcelains.

(Monday & Public Holidays closed. Visit the antique and flea market in Jalan Surabaya instead).

Scattered across the Java Sea to the North of Jakarta are the tropical islands of PulauSeribuor Thousand Islands. The area is a marine national park, though more than 20 of the islands are permitted to be exploited. The islands are anything from 15 minutes to two hours away by boat and offer a wide range of accommodation and recreational activities such as scuba diving, snorkeling, and relaxing beach life. Jakarta's 'offshore' islands start only a few km out, in the Bay of Jakarta. The waters closest to Jakarta are murky --the islands are better the farther you go from Jakarta.

For those who are interested in having a break away from the daily bustle of city life, we offer 2 (two) best resorts recommended to you:

PUTRI RESORT

One of the better known resorts in the PulauSeribuchain that has modern facilities such as accommodations, gorgeous sunrise and sunset views are available from your bed; restaurant, a cozy spot for wine and dine; meeting room for your business meeting and social gatherings; undersea aquarium to watch the amazing variety of tropical fish and coral; swimming pool; semi submersible underwater boat to gaze upon the throng of fish and coral passing around you; boats for pleasure. Several different types of boats, large and small, are ready for island hopping, diving, fishing expeditions, and group outings; tennis court; Dive Shop with a full range of gear and supplies; and the medical clinic.

SEPA RESORT

It is a small oval shape island, a paradise for divers. White sandy beach, air-conditioned cottages, restaurant, PADI dive shop, and other modern facilities are available here.

PT.07 -HIGHLAND UP COUNTRY Tour

TourDaily: 8 hours, Minimum: 2 pax

Adult: USD60 Child: USD50

Single person traveling alone: USD85, Time: 09.00 –17.00 hrs

Drive through one of Jakarta's suburbs and lovely countryside, this tour takes you to Bogor, 60 km south of Jakarta and on to Puncak and Cisarua area at an altitude of 1,400 meters above sea level.

This tour featuring the following objects and attractions:

BOGOR BOTANICAL GARDENS

Located at the heart of Bogor, it is world class botanical gardens, covering an area of around 85 hectares. Officially opened by the Dutch in 1817, it was from these gardens that early researchers developed various crops such as tea, cassava, tobacco and cinchona. The park is still a major center for botanical research in Indonesia. More than 15,000 plant species grow in this garden, including 400 kinds of palm and more than 5,000 kinds of orchid varieties from various regions in Indonesia. Many of the trees are centuries old. In the northwest corner of the gardens you can view the Presidential Summer Place that formerly was the official residence of the Dutch governors-general from 1870 to 1942.

PUNCAK

From Bogor, drive across this beautiful 1400-meter high pass, winding mountain road that passes through small resort towns and tea plantations you will arrive to Puncak that meaning 'summit'. At this high altitude, it's cool and often misty. Tea pickers with their colorful costumes and big broad hats are good objects for photo lovers. It is a popular escape from the heat and crowds of Jakarta. LUNCH will be served at a local restaurant here.

TAMAN SAFARI INDONESIA

The Taman Safari Indonesia or Indonesia Safari Park is a drive-through game park created for animals in an environment as close as possible to their natural habitat. Watching various kinds of animals from all continents roaming nearby your tour bus is a very interesting experience that can not be found in other zoos.

Adjacent to the park is Baby Zoo which will offer another interest where you could hold friendly lion cubs, shake hands with orangutans and see a very unique white tiger.

PT.o8 -BANDUNG VOLCANO Tour

Daily: 12 hours, Minimum: 2 pax

Adult: USD65 Child: USD55

Single person traveling alone: USD95, Time: 07.00 –19.00 hrs

A full day scenic-sightseeing tour to Bandung, the capital of West Java province and the Indonesia's third largest city, also known as 'the city of flowers'. A pleasant drive via Subang roads, passing by mountainous area, paddy fields, rubber and tea plantations make this excursion worth.

This tour featuring the following objects and attractions:

CIATER HOT SPRING

Ciater is a pretty little place in the middle of huge tea estate. Its main attraction is the Sari Ater Hot Spring Resort; the pools are probably the best of all the hot springs around Bandung. You can enjoy swimming in warm sulphurous water pools that can heal rheumatism and skin problems.

note: pool ticket will be on your own expenses

TANGKUBAN PERAHU CRATER

The name Tangkuban Perahu or the 'overturned boat' derived from the Sundanese 'Sangkuriang' legend. Its craters are the remnant of a gigantic collapsed volcano; it still simmers and bubbles, sending up deadly sulphurous fumes. Its last serious eruption was in 1969, filling the area with black clouds, ash, and mudflows. Tangkuban Perahu crater is easily accessible by car that makes it as impressive sights.

CIHAMPELAS 'JEANS' CENTER

No discussion of Bandung' sights would be complete without mention of its famous jeans street, Jalan Cihampelas. This is a commercial area, which offers a huge collection of jeans and the most beautifully decorated shop. It is the ultimate in arts and has to be seen to be believed.

The CITY OF JOGYAKARTA

First visit is to the 'Kraton' or Sultan's Palace, built in 1755, a large part of the Kraton is used as a museum and holds an extensive collection and it becomes a living museum of antiquities and grandeur; then visit to a Batik factory -- Yogyakarta is a noted batik center, you can watch the batik process at the workshop; and proceed to Kota Gedelocated about 5 km south east of Yogyakarta, now has been famous since 1930 as the center of Jogja's silver industry.

PRAMBANAN TEMPLE

Built in the 8th century, Prambanan Temples is the largest Hindu temple complex and the most outstanding example of Hindu art in Java. It is locally called 'Candi Roro Jonggrang' or 'Slender Virgin,' and sometimes the entire complex is referred to by this name. The vibrant scenes carved onto the inner wall of the gallery encircling the temple are from the Ramayana epic. On its northern boundary is the outdoor theater where the Ramayana ballet is performed on full-moon nights from May to October annually.

BOROBUDUR TEMPLE

Located about 4.2-km northwest of Yogyakarta, the Borobudur Temple is one of the wonders in the world. Built in the 8th century, its entire monument was conceived as a Buddhist vision of the cosmos in stone, starting in the everyday world and spiraling up to nirvana - eternal nothingness, the Buddhist heaven. The smaller temple of Mendut with its 10 feet high statue of Buddha enshrined inside and the Pawon will be visited enroute. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant. On the One Day Tour, transfer back to the airport will be done soon the tour is finished while for the Overnight Tour will be done on the following day after breakfast at hotel.
