

Amusement Parks

Kishkinta

India's No.1 Theme Park at Tambaram. Offers hi-tech space shuttle, wave pool, white water, flume ride, Kiddies Kingdom.

Little Folks

46 Kms towards Mahabalipuram. A great amusement complex for children. Has a Giant-Piano, Toy Train, Rainbow Fountain, Slide-into-pool, Cartoon show & Paddle-Pool.

MGM "Dizze World" Beach Resort

24 kms towards Mahabalipuram, (Near Muttukadu). Has amusement park, unique water sports.

Prime Time

Annanagar, extravagant indoor amusement park, especially for children packed with bumper carriages, play pens and all sorts of new games.

Dash 'N Splash

30 Kms from Central Station. South India's exclusive water park. It has wave spiral and free fall slides and flumes from height of 12ft to 35ft.

VGP Golden Beach

30 Kms from Chennai. A popular beach resort and amusement park filled with children's games, parks and seaside restaurant.

Memorials

Anna Square

It is located in the centre of a beautiful park, the entrance to which is a spectacular contemporary-style arch in the shape of twin converging elephant tusks.

MGR Memorial

Beach road. Located on the Marina Beach adjacent to Anna Square. Built on the site where M. G. Ramachandran, former Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu was buried.

Rajiv Gandhi Memorial

Sriperumbudur. Place where Rajiv Gandhi was assassinated. Also, the birth place of Sri Ramanujar, the Vaishnavite saint.

Victory War Memorial

Adjacent to the Fort St. George on the south is the War Memorial, which housed the coastal battery and was formerly called 'Cupid's Bow the Victory was Memorial honors those who have laid down their lives for their country since the First World War.

Rajaji, Gandhi and Kamaraj Memorials

Close to children's park are the memorial buildings, the Rajaji Memorial, the Gandhi Mandapam Memorial and Kamaraj Memorials. The Octagonal-shaped building commemorates India's first

Valluvar Kottam

The ValluvarKottam, dedicated to the memory of the Tamil Saint Philosopher and poet Thiruvalluvar, is the largest auditorium in Asia. It is located at the junction of Kodampakkam High Road and Valluvar Kottam Road.

Museums

Dev Centre for Musical Instruments

Mylapore. An exquisite collection of ancient and modern musical instruments, both original and prototype can be found here.

Fort Museum

Beach road. An exclusive museum which preserves relics of the British era including original correspondence of those times.

National Art Gallery and Museum

Built in 1906, the Chennai National Art Gallery was originally intended to be a memorial to queen Victoria. An impressive cartel dome flanked a series of smaller domes supported by pillars on each side. After independence, it became an art Gallery in 1951.

Parks and Zoo

Vedanthangal Bird Sanctuary

85 Kms south of madras is the Vedanthangal bird sanctuary, which is one of the major ones in india. Every year during the rainy season an average of 1,00,000 birds come here.

Children's Park

On Sardar Patel Road, find the entrance to the Children's Park on the left when coming from Adyar. The main attractions of the Park are the elephant and pony rides.

Snake Park

Adjacent Childrens' park is the city's interesting snake park. The snake park houses a vast variety of reptiles, ranging from the dark deadly 'King Cobra' 'Banded' Krait' to puff adders', vipers, pythons and alligators.

Crocodile Park

At 42 km point from Chennai on the way to Mahabalipuram is the Crocodile Bank, run by

Anna Zoological Park

30 Kms south of Madras, large numbers of different species of animals are kept in large open enclosures. The kids can have jolly ride on the toy train.