NASHUA, NH - February XX, 2007 – The “reinvented” Nashua Courtyard Marriott recently reopened after a major renovation and brand transition. Formerly a full service Marriott Hotel, the new Nashua hotel combines the best of Marriott full service amenities with Courtyard’s renowned convenience and business services. The Nashua Courtyard hotel remains a Marriott managed property.

In an effort to better serve business travelers and business meetings - the core customers of the hotel – the transition from Marriott to Courtyard Marriott includes a completely renovated hotel, superior upgrades to business services and connectivity, free high speed Internet and the full service amenities and same high level of Marriott service. According to Mark Lesser, General Manager, “We are the best of both worlds. It is the wonderfully unique combination of full service and business amenities that separates us from all other hotels in the Nashua, NH market. Indeed, we are a flagship property of Marriott’s Courtyard brand.”

The hotel began renovations in the spring of 2005, expediting the process to ensure minimal impact to the guest and a return to full operational capability in the shortest time frame. Interior space was fully renovated including the lobby, bar/lounge, restaurant, guest rooms, fitness center, pool and 5,000 square feet of function space. All 245 hotel rooms feature a large work desk and free high-speed Internet. Additional amenities include the Courtyard Café breakfast buffet, Courtyard Lounge serving dinner and cocktails, and room service.

Located in the Merrimack Valley in Southern New Hampshire, the Nashua Courtyard hotel is conveniently located near major businesses such as Daniel Webster College, Rivier College, and Southern New Hampshire Medical Center & St. Joseph’s Hospital. For travelers requiring a hotel or lodging near Manchester, NH, the Nashua Courtyard Marriott provides convenient access to city businesses and the Manchester airport.

While ideal for business and meetings, the Nashua Courtyard hotel is also a perfect hotel for weekend getaways and family vacations. Local Nashua, NH attractions include the Anheuser-Busch Brewery, Canobie Lake Park, and Nashua Pride Baseball at Holman Stadium. Outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy nearby hiking & biking trails, fishing, cross country and snow skiing, and snow mobiling.
