

Places to Visit in New Orleans

New Orleans Aquarium

#1 Canal Street, New Orleans La 70131. Ph: (504) 581-4629

<http://www.auduboninstitute.org/>

Hours: Tues-Sunday 10:00 AM-5:00 PM

Admission: $19.95 per adult, $12.95 per child

Located on the Mississippi River adjacent to the French Quarter Audubon Aquarium of the Americas immerses you in an underwater world. The colors of a Caribbean reef come alive in our walk-through tunnel, while our penguins and Southern sea otters enchant you with their antics. Touch a sting ray, feed a parakeet, and marvel at our gigantic sharks, tarpon, and rays in the 400,000 gallon Gulf of Mexico Exhibit. Watch for sea turtles throughout the Aquarium—as coordinator of the Louisiana Marine Mammal and Sea Turtle Rescue Program, we prepare many of them for release to the wild

Audubon Zoo

6500 Magazine Street, New Orleans La 70118. Ph: (504) 581-4629

Admission: $19.00 per adult, $9.00 per Child, WWII Vets Free

Since its opening day on D-Day -- June 6, 2000, nearly two-million visitors have toured the National World War II Museum. A must-see for history lovers and all patriots, it has been designated by the U.S. Congress as the country's official World War II Museum. Powerful images and extraordinary artifacts bring to life the American Spirit, the courage, teamwork and sacrifice of the young men and women who won the war and changed the world. From the 1930s prelude to war, to the Normandy Invasion and the battles of the Pacific Islands, visitors trace America's role in the war and on the Home Front.
