

New York Marriott East Side
525 Lexington Avenue at 49th Street
New York, New York 10017
Phone: 1-800-242-8684
Fax: 1-212-751-3440
www.marriott.com/nycea

WHILE YOU'RE HERE

Top 10 Things To Do in New York

With a convenient Lexington Avenue address, the New York Marriott East Side places you conveniently in midtown Manhattan near the United Nations and Rockefeller Center. While we could easily offer a Top 100 things to do in New York City and not run out of ideas, this Top 10 comprises the must-do list for when you find yourself in the Big Apple.

Featured Attraction

Rockefeller Center
30 Rockefeller Center | 212-632-3975

Home to some of New York City's most noteworthy landmarks and celebrated attractions, Rockefeller Center gives you a backstage pass to the ever-so-popular NBC Studios and the fascinating Radio City Music Hall, not to mention the best view possible from the 70-floor-high Top of the Rock Observation Deck. Explore the observation deck at www.topoftherocknyc.com and create your custom Rockefeller Center experience at www.rockefellercenter.com.

Radio City Music Hall

Part of Rockefeller Center, this is the home of The Rockettes, the most dazzling performers in the world. And when there's no show, Radio City is still open for business, providing one of the coolest walking tours in Manhattan.
www.radiocity.com
1260 Avenue of the Americas
212-307-7171

Times Square

Named after the New York Times, Times Square is considered to be The Big Apple's economic hub. Not only is it America's favorite venue for New Year's Eve, but there's also the flagship store of Toys "R" Us and the best street performers ever found.
www.timessquare.com
Seventh Avenue at 43rd Street
212-768-1560

Statue of Liberty

Take a ferry to possibly the country's most renowned historic landmark. The inside of the statue houses a museum and there is an incredible view from the observation deck as well as the crown, which is open for limited admittance by reservation only.
www.nps.gov/stli
Liberty Island
212-363-3200

St. Patrick's Cathedral

Located across from Rockefeller Center, this cathedral is the largest Catholic Cathedral in the U.S. Inside it boasts a seating capacity of 2,500, has numerous altars and stained glass windows and a powerful wind organ with over 7,300 pipes.
www.saintpatrickscathedral.org
460 Madison Avenue
212-753-2261

Central Park

Experience the world's greatest urban oasis right in the heart of the Big Apple. Visitors can go canoeing, ride a horse, rent a bike, read a book, or even take a nap.
www.centralparknyc.org
Fifth Avenue at 60th Street

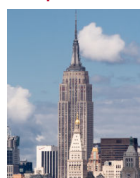

Museum of Modern Art

MoMA is the best museum of modern and contemporary art on Earth with original works such as Andy Warhol's Marilyn Monroe and Pablo Picasso's Les Femmes d'Alger (O. J. R. M.).
www.moma.org
11 W 53 Street
212-708-9400

Bronx Zoo

The Bronx Zoo is the largest urban wildlife preserve in North America with 265 acres providing shelter for more than 4,500 animals. If you have kids, make sure to take them to Dora & Diego's 4-D Adventure and the Children's Zoo.
www.bronxzoo.com
2300 Southern Boulevard
718-220-5100

Empire State Building

Built in only 410 days, the majestic Empire State Building was once the tallest building in the world. Though no longer the tallest, it is still a prime destination for incredible views and memorable photographs.
www.esbnyc.com
350 Fifth Avenue
212-736-3100

United Nations

This complex was designated the permanent headquarters for the United Nations in 1952. Tour the facility and learn about its history and see international gifts of art donated to the organization over the years.
www.un.org/tours
2 United Nations Plaza
212-963-8687

