

Enjoy Oakland's Popular Entertainment Venues

When visiting Oakland, California, be sure to experience the renowned entertainment venues. Whether you're looking for a concert, ballet, symphony or sporting event, Oakland has got you covered. With so many venues in one area, there is sure to be an event you will not want to miss.

The Oracle Arena is home to the Oakland Raiders, Oakland A's and Golden State Warriors. Since 1966 The Oracle Arena has been the home for the Golden State Warriors and famous past players including Wilt Chamberlin, Nate Thurmond and Rick Barry. It also houses 60,000+ fans on Oakland Raiders game days with the most serious of those fans gathering in the daunting "Black Hole." The Oakland A's offer a $35 ticket that includes "All You Can Eat."

For some of the areas premier concerts make sure you visit The Fox Theater. Since opening in 1928 The Fox Theater has been an Oakland icon. After years of silence The Fox Theater has been restored to it's original breathtaking beauty and is the permanent home to the Oakland School for the Arts.

If you're looking for stand-up comedy to Broadway shows, The Paramount Theater is the place to visit. The Paramount Theater, which opened in 1931, is home to the Oakland Symphony and Oakland Ballet Company. The Paramount Theater also offers guided tours to learn all the great history of this National Historic Landmark.

Spend your next vacation in Oakland, California and make sure to buy your tickets to your favorite event! Choose the Courtyard Oakland Downtown for all your Oakland vacation needs. Just visit: <http://www.Marriott.com/oakcd>

Courtyard Oakland Downtown – 988 Broadway Oakland, CA 94607

510-625-8282 – <http://www.Marriott.com/oakcd>