

Residence Inn by Marriott in Pleasant Hill Enjoys an "Ultimate Coffee Break" on KKDV 92.1

When Stephanie Martirani, general manager of the Residence Inn by Marriott in Pleasant Hill, first took the call from KKDV 92.1, she couldn't have known that she and her team were about to win an unlikely prize. Martirani and her staff had won KKDV's "Ultimate Coffee Break" - a prize where the station will send a group to your place of business with fine coffee and delicious snacks for lucky winners who have entered their contest.

Sensing an opportunity to reward her hard-working team and score some valuable publicity for the Pleasant Hill property, Martirani and her crew showed up to the event wearing matching "I Believe" T-shirts - a reflection of the Residence Inn by Marriott's mantra of dedication and service.

"You guys all look stunning in your white "I Believe" T-shirts," remarked on-air host Carrie. "What is that about?"

It only took Martirani five seconds to perfectly sum up what believing is all about. "At Residence Inn by Marriott, we have a special culture in the way we take care of our guests and associates," said Martirani. "'I Believe' just means that we all believe in the culture, and in practicing it."

And with that, and a fair amount of cheering from the passionate staff, the team enjoyed a well-deserved coffee break.

"The event could not have gone more smoothly," said Martirani. "The station loved our enthusiasm and the T-shirts. The team loved the yummy treats, and had fun cheering on the air and I loved the energy, free advertising and seeing the associates enjoy a well deserved celebration!"
