

Walnut Creek Marriott Suites

Updated November 2008

Executive Suites (3) & Junior Suites (3)

Large-configured guestroom; includes a king bed, a sofa with pull-out bed, 4-person table, large upholstered chair, and working desk.

Executive Suites connect to 10-person boardrooms

550 sq. ft.

Executive/Junior Suite

Parlor Suites (4)

Two-room suite; large living room area with a six-person conference table, sofa with pull-out bed, two upholstered chairs, and a working desk; balcony with table & two chairs, connecting to a deluxe guest room with a choice of a king bed or two double beds, and two full bathrooms.

Each room opens separately to the corridor.

768 sq. ft.

Parlor Suite living area

Parlor Suite bedroom (king bed)

Governor's Suite (1)

Two-room suite; large living room which includes a sofa with pull-out bed, two upholstered chairs, working desk, TV, bathroom, and balcony with a table & two chairs; connecting to a king-bedded room, with a master bathroom and an oversized bathtub.

620 sq. ft.

Presidential Suite (1)

Two room suite. The living room & dining area feature adjustable overhead lighting, a six-person round table with an overhead chandelier, three upholstered chairs, a bathroom with a separate shower, TVs at either ends of the room and a black leather sofa with matching coffee table

The kitchen & wet bar include a refrigerator, microwave, 12-cup coffee pot, six deluxe sized coffee cups and a sink.

The bedroom has a double-door connection, two side tables with three drawers each, a standing wardrobe with front-mounted mirror, chest of drawers, and an iHome alarm clock with iPod connections. The king-sized bed is housed in an elegant mahogany four-poster bed frame.

The master bathroom is complete with a shower-enabled Jacuzzi, a three-sided vanity mirror with a standing magnifying mirror, side-by-side sinks, and a skylight for natural lighting.

The living room of the Presidential Suite connects to a Concierge-level king-bedded guest room, which is sold separately, at the current rate.

1,065 sq. ft.

Presidential Suite living area

Presidential Suite bedroom