

CONTACT: Jeff Kempton
Jeffrey.Kempton@marriott.com
(602) 273-9220

RESIDENCE INN IN PHOENIX, AZ HOTEL COMPLETES MAJOR RENOVATION

New meeting room renovations and lobby space at Phoenix Airport hotel helps guests feel more comfortable on extended stays.

Phoenix, AZ – The Residence Inn Phoenix Airport Hotel by Marriott has recently completed a major renovation of its meeting rooms and lobby space. The new design features contemporary décor; zones to support guest activities of eating, working and relaxing; the latest in technology; and engaging music and lighting schemes.

“These new renovations have made our hotel one of the best hotels near the Phoenix Airport,” said Jeff Kempton, General Manager at the Residence Inn Phoenix Hotel. “With a new lobby, guests will feel even more welcomed from the moment they walk through our doors, and our updated meeting spaces make us an ideal choice for local businesses and business travelers alike.”

The lobby received the majority of the renovations. Guests can expect an updated and plush carpet throughout the lobby area. Refined study pods populate the lobby space as well, offering guests a chance to enjoy two new 37” flat screen televisions. Business travelers in need of a quiet working environment will appreciate new computer terminals. One of the best Phoenix Airport hotels, the Residence Inn now also features boarding pass access for guests to alleviate the stress of travel.

Guests who want to exercise can do so on new exercise equipment, including two treadmills, an elliptical machine, recumbent bike and free weights. The exercise area also sees new woodflex flooring, giving the room a sharper and more modern look.

The restaurant services at this hotel near the Phoenix Airport also received two substantial upgrades. The first upgrade is a 50" flat screen television in the dining area. The second addition is two double-door refrigerators. Guests who wish to dine outside in the beautiful Phoenix, AZ weather can now also take advantage of the Residence Inn's new Wi-Fi capabilities, which extend even outdoors.

To position itself as an ideal destination for meetings in Phoenix, the Residence Inn Phoenix Airport Hotel has updated its meeting rooms. The hotel has laid new plush and colorful carpet, as well as upgraded new wall vinyl. New meeting furniture provides a more comfortable business environment, while new cabinetry with granite countertops gives the meeting rooms a sophisticated look. A 50" flat screen television will help with presentations.

Located minutes from downtown Phoenix and less than three miles from the Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport, the Residence Inn by Marriott Phoenix Airport Hotel offers guests convenient access to the Phoenix Convention Center, great downtown attractions and nightlife.

To celebrate the new renovations, this Phoenix Airport hotel is offering a new extended stay hotel deal. Rates start at just $79/night, and with great amenities like full kitchens, free grocery delivery and updated meeting rooms and work spaces, the Residence Inn Phoenix Airport Hotel is an ideal destination for any extended stay trip to Phoenix.

About Residence Inn Hotels

Residence Inn by Marriott is a moderately priced extended stay brand that helps guests to thrive on long stays. Spacious suites with full kitchens offer the comforts of the modern home, while associates provide intuitive service with a human touch. With over 600 properties in North and Central America and the Caribbean, Residence Inn is Marriott's second largest lodging brand, with more than 115 hotels on the way, including a new Residence Inn prototype customized for the European market -- the Residence Inn by Marriott Munich Orleansstrasse -- opening in 2011.

For more information or reservations, call the Residence Inn by Marriott Phoenix Airport Hotel directly at 1-602-273-9220, the Residence Inn toll-free number at 800-331-3131, a travel agent or visit the Web site at www.residenceinn.com.

Click here for Marriott Company Information.