

Best Meetings & Conventions Hotel in Shanghai
By TTG Travel Award, 2011

On 14th April 2011, Renaissance Shanghai Zhongshan Park Hotel received the “Best Meetings & Conventions Hotel in Shanghai” by TTG China Travel Awards 2011. Mr. Robert J. Lohrmann, newly appointed General Manager, proudly received this award (image attached) on behalf of the hotel and all the Renaissance ambassadors. This is the second consecutive year the Renaissance Shanghai Zhongshan Park Hotel has won this prestigious Industry Award in recognition for its’ ongoing commitment to product and service excellence in support of the growing MICE industry in China.

Renaissance Shanghai Zhongshan Park Hotel is well located in Puxi district, adjacent to scenic Zhongshan Park. It is conveniently serviced by 3 metro lines and other public transport links. The hotel offers one of Shanghai’s largest grand ballrooms with unobstructed views comprising of 1,250 square meters. Over the past 3 years, the hotel has successfully hosted numerous large scale international events such as IBM, SONY, P&G, Astra Zeneca. The hotel’s well-appointed conference facilities and experienced events team have earned the hotel a solid reputation amongst top Meeting organizers and key decision makers as a trusted meeting venue since opening in late 2008.

The annual TTG Travel Awards has been established since 1989. TTG Travel Awards is organized by TTG Publishing, with TTG Asia, TTG mice, TTG China and TTG-BTmice China, the region’s leading travel trade titles. TTG Travel Awards not only serves as a benchmark rating for high standards across the industry but also as a barometer for future industry growth in China.

Winners of this coveted Travel Agent Awards and Travel Supplier Awards category are determined by votes cast by TTG readers, across Asia Pacific. All TTG Travel Award winners are therefore deemed to be “the best in class” by the experts in the MICE industry.

