HOSPITALITY AGREEMENT:

All hospitality events are designed and based on the guidelines of the Renaissance Washington, DC Hotel listed below.

FOOD AND BEVERAGE:

To ensure the quality, all perishable food items are recommended to be left out for an hour and a half. No perishable foods may be left out for more than three (3) hours. The hotel will not be liable for food items carried out by guests following the event.

CATERING FEES:

A standard $50 setup fee will apply for each event. If applicable, a $25 refresh fee will apply per refresh.

There is a 22% service charge and a 10% sales tax added to all food and beverage charges. The 22% service charge is taxable. All prices are quoted per person unless otherwise indicated.

Butler passed service will require an attendant. Guests and will be subject to a $150.00 attendant fee. Cooking stations and carving stations are subject to a $150.00 fee per chef.

Bar setups that require a bartender will be subject to a $150.00 bartender fee for the first three (3) hours. Bars with a bartender will be charged on a consumption basis per drink or per bottle. When no bartender is requested, all opened bottles will be charged. Credit may be given to any sealed unopened bottles upon request and proper arrangement with the In Room Dining Manager.

If a guest chooses to bring their own beverages a corkage fee of $10 will apply per bottle. Please note that additional charges will apply for glassware.

GUARANTEES:

Ten (10) working days prior to all food and beverage functions, the Renaissance Washington DC Hotel requires the customer to submit an expected number of guests for each scheduled event. The expected number of guests cannot be reduced more than 10% at the time the hotel receives the guaranteed number of guests. The guaranteed number of guests for all food and beverage functions must be submitted to the in room dining department by 12:00 PM (noon) three (3) working days prior to the date/time of the function.

If the guarantee is not received by the cut off date/time, the hotel will assume that the expected number of guests noted at the top of the banquet event order or the guest count submitted ten (10) working days prior to the event. The guarantee becomes the minimum number of guests used to calculate the food preparation. Should the actual number of guests in attendance of the event exceeds the guarantee, the guest will be charged for the actual number of guests.

PAYMENT:

Unless credit has been established with the Renaissance Washington DC Hotel or a credit card authorization form has been completed, payment must be received three (3) business days before your function based on the guaranteed number of guests.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS:

Tax exempt organizations must present a certification of exemption three (3) business days before the event in order to be exempt from paying taxes.

CANCELLATIONS:

In an event of cancellation, there will be a cancellation fee for the expenses incurred by the hotel in preparation for you event.

FURNITURE ADDITION/ REMOVAL:

Any furniture removal that takes place will result in a $250 labor fee. The Renaissance Washington DC Hotel reserves the right to increase the labor fee if there is extensive furniture removal requested. A furniture storage fee at the group rate will also apply as a room will need to be reserved for storage. The storage fee will be charge at the group rate or (if not applicable) the standard room rate on a per night basis.

Additional furniture in the room will be charged based on the request.

EVENT TECHNOLOGY

If your event requires events technology, the Renaissance event technology team will work with you to create customized proposal. Please allow at least three (3) business days prior to the event to submit all event technology requests.

SIGNAGE AND DÉCOR:

The Renaissance Washington DC Hotel reserves the right to approve all signage, props, and décor. Signs, banners, or poster are not to be taped, stapled, nailed, or to be affixed in any other manner to the walls of the hotel room.

Signage in the lobby level or hallways of the hotel must be approved before placed anywhere in the hotel.

Signage requests must be submitted at least three (3) business days prior to the event.

Easels are available upon request. The first easel will be provided complimentary by the hotel. Any additional easels are $15 per easel.
