Marriott International’s Executive Chairman, J.W. Marriott, Jr.’s, belief that “How we do business is as important as the business we do” describes our pledge to maintain an ethical workplace and the commitment of our associates to do the right thing. High ethical standards foster pride and confidence among our associates and help us maintain our competitive advantage.

GOALS/TARGETS
Our commitment to transparency and upholding the highest ethical standards includes goals to:

- Observe our fundamental values and ethical standards in everything we do in order to provide our associates with an honest and ethical work environment.
- Protect human rights within the company’s sphere of influence and conduct our business in a manner consistent with the principles contained within the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.
- Distribute the company’s Business Conduct Guide, in multiple languages, to all managers worldwide.
- Train our associates on the company’s policies, including human rights and the protection of children, ethics, supplier conduct and anti-corruption laws.
- Research and understand potential business partners in order to maintain our integrity worldwide, including in those regions where corruption is considered prevalent.
