

HOTEL AM

STEINPLATZ

KIEZ GUIDE

Hotel am Steinplatz, Autograph Collection
Steinplatz 4, 10623 Berlin
+49 (0)30 554444 0

ARCHITECTURE

|                                 |    |
|---------------------------------|----|
| Bikini-Haus                     | 15 |
| DeutscheOper                    | 16 |
| Kaiser-Wilhelm-Gedächtniskirche | 18 |
| KaDeWe                          | 20 |
| Renaissance-Theater             | 5  |
| Tiergarten                      | 1  |
| ZooPalast                       | 2  |

CULINARY

|                         |    |
|-------------------------|----|
| Café am Neuen See       | 3  |
| Café Savigny            | 7  |
| Schwarzes Café          | 10 |
| Bier's Ku'damm 195      | 25 |
| Paris Bar               | 12 |
| Rogacki                 | 17 |
| Die Stulle              | 4  |
| Berliner Kaffeerösterei | 24 |

CULTURE

|                            |    |
|----------------------------|----|
| Antiques in Suarezstrasse  | 26 |
| Camera Work                | 9  |
| C/O Berlin im Amerika Haus | 13 |
| Chapeaux                   | 11 |
| Galerie Max Hetzler        | 6  |
| Helmut Newton Foundation   | 14 |
| Literaturhaus              | 22 |
| P & T - Paper & Tea Parfum | 8  |
| Lehmann                    | 27 |
| Villa Griesebach           | 23 |
| Verborgenes Museum         | 21 |
| Zilberman Gallery          | 19 |

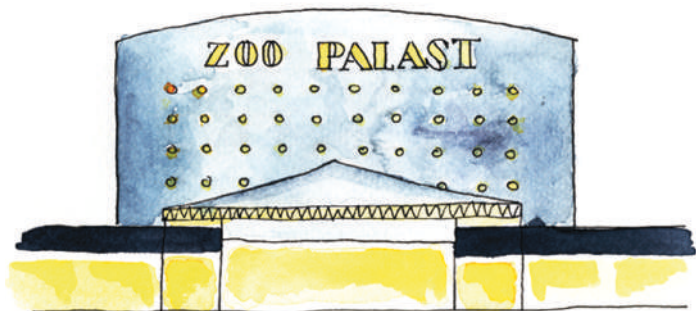

There is a lot to discover around the hotel – with this guide you will find exciting places of architecture, culinary, and culture around HOTEL AM STEINPLATZ.

TIERGARTEN

Tiergarten is Berlin's answer to Central Park. The city's oldest park covers 200 hectares – and offers plenty of space for a relaxing stroll, a trip in a rowing boat, or even just lazing in the sun.

S TIERGARTEN / U HANSAPLATZ / S+U ZOOLOGISCHER GARTEN

ZOO PALAST

Originally built in 1956/57 as a premiere cinema by the architects Paul Schwebes, Hans Schoszberger and Gerhard Fritsche for the Berlin Film Festival, the Zoo Palast was re-inaugurated in 2013. The cinema is a cubic structure on a trapezoidal floor plan, covered in pale yellow ceramic tiles.

HARDENBERGSTRASSE 29A
ZOOPALAST-BERLIN.DE

CAFÉ AM NEUEN SEE

The CANS is the go-to café for all Berliners seeking an oasis of calm in the big city. Its idyllic location at the center of the Tiergarten close to Neuer See makes it an ideal getaway from the concrete jungle.

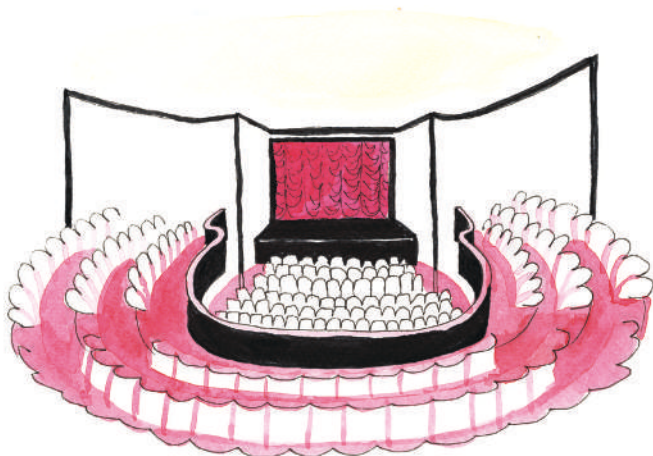

LICHTENSTEINALLEE 2
CAFEAMNEUENSEE.DE

DIE STULLE

Passionate hospitality combined with products from the area. Regional, fresh and sustainable is their motto. The bread is traditionally baked and makes for an unforgettable experience. The menu changes weekly and offers delicious vegan and vegetarian options as well.

CARMERSTRASSE 10
DIE-STULLE.COM

RENAISSANCE THEATER

The Renaissance Theater is one of Europe's few fully preserved Art Deco theaters. Since the mid-1990s the program has been devoted to contemporary drama.

KNESEBECKSTRASSE 100

TICKETS AVAILABLE AFTERWARDS FROM EVENING BOX OFFICE RENAISSANCE-THEATER.DE

GALERIE MAX HETZLER

When Max Hetzler moved his gallery from Cologne to Berlin in 1996, he immediately caused a stir in the art scene with eminent contemporary works by artists such as Jeff Koons and Gerhard Merz. The gallery has been consistently devoted to an outstanding line-up of artists including minimalists and conceptualists and celebrated its 40th birthday in new premises in Bleibtreustraße.

BLEIBTREUSTRASSE 45
MAXHETZLER.COM

CAFÉ SAVIGNY

In the summertime, a table outside Café Savigny is the ideal spot for a slice of cake in the sunshine. The guests' thirst for knowledge is quenched by a broad selection of international newspapers and magazines.

GROLMANSTRASSE 53
HOT DISHES SERVED ALL DAY
FACEBOOK.COM/CAFESAVIGNY

P & T - PAPER & TEA

One of the most gorgeous shops in the neighborhood is P & T, where you can discover a myriad of different types of tea and buy high-quality stationery.

BLEIBTREUSTRASSE 4
PAPERANDTEA.COM

CAMERA WORK

The gallery was founded in 1997 and has since blossomed into one of the world's leading photography galleries. Photography icons such as Man Ray, Richard Avedon and Diane Arbus are displayed in changing exhibitions.

KANTSTRASSE 149
CAMERAWORK.DE

SCHWARZES CAFÉ

First opened in 1977, Schwarzes Café has since become a veritable Charlottenburg institution. The establishment is open around the clock, and visitors are pleased to learn you can still order scrambled eggs at 3 a.m. in the morning.

KANTSTRASSE 148
SCHWARZESCAFE-BERLIN.DE

CHAPEAUX

Since 1995, Chapeaux provides their customers with individual hats made from high-quality materials. On top of that Andrea Curti and her team are happy to repair and refurbish your favorite headpiece.

BLEIBTREUSTRASSE 51
CHAPEAUX-HUTMODE-BERLIN.DE

PARIS BAR

Paris Bar is a haunt of the glitterati. The bar is renowned for its bistro flair, which managers Michel Würthle and Reinald Nohal have cultivated since 1979. It is also famed for the collection of artwork that lines its walls.

KANTSTRASSE 152
PARISBAR.NET

C/O BERLIN IN AMERIKA HAUS

In 2000, photographer Stephan Erfurt, designer Marc Naroska, and architect Ingo Pott founded an exhibition center for photography and visual media, showcasing both renowned artists as well as newcomers. C/O underwent restructuring to become a non-profit foundation in 2013, in 2014, C/O Berlin moved to the Amerika Haus. Designed by the architect Bruno Grimmek, Amerika Haus was built in 1956/57 to accommodate the United States Information Service (USIS).

HARDENBERGSTRASSE 22-24
CO-BERLIN.ORG

HELMUT NEWTON FOUNDATION

Housed in the Museum for Photography, the Helmut Newton Foundation's temporary exhibitions of the legendary photographer's works are a must-see.

JEBENSSTRASSE 2
HELMUT-NEWTON.COM

BIKINI-HAUS

The Bikini-Haus is a six-story, low-rise building dating from 1955–57. Between the upper floors and mall area below there was originally an open story with views over the zoo – an unusual feature that gave the building its name. Located in the Bikini Berlin, Kantini is the hotspot for food and drinks in Berlins City West. With 14 different restaurants and outlets visitors can enjoy an innovative food experience.

BUDAPESTER STRASSE 38–50

INDIVIDUAL RESTAURANT OPENING HOURS, ALSO ON SUNDAYS

BIKINIBERLIN.COM

DEUTSCHE OPER

The Deutsche Oper opera house was built between 1956–61 as a functionalist structure in glass and reinforced concrete. Fritz Bornemann designed an auditorium with seating for 1,865 guests. The windowless facade in rough-textured concrete is a distinctive feature. Surviving parts of the back of the earlier building were reconstructed in subsequent years.

BISMARCKSTRASSE 35

EVENING BOX OFFICE: ONE HOUR BEFORE PERFORMANCES

DEUTSCHEOPERBERLIN.DE

ROGACKI

Charlottenburg's first eel and fish smokehouse was founded in 1928, and the family business has since established itself as a West Berlin favorite. As a mix of snack bar and gourmet shop, Rogacki serves up everything from cold-smoked salted mackerel, to quail eggs and even ox tongue.

WILMERSDORFER STRASSE 145 / 146
ROGACKI.DE

KAISER WILHELM MEMORIAL CHURCH

The Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church was designed by architect Franz Schwechten as a memorial to Kaiser Wilhelm I. Built from 1891 to 1895, the Romanesque Revival church in the shape of a Latin cross was the focal point of the neighborhood. Having suffered extensive damage in World War II, the ruins were preserved as a memorial. Two new buildings by Egon Eierman were constructed between 1959 and 1961: a hexagonal tower housing a wedding and baptismal chapel and an octagonal main building.

BREITSCHIEDPLATZ
GEDAECHTNISKIRCHE-BERLIN.DE

ZILBERMAN GALLERY

The Zilberman Gallery was originally founded in Istanbul in 2008. Since 2016 the gallery invites guests to experience exceptional, modern and contemporary art in Berlin, not too far from the Steinplatz. Besides exhibitions, the gallery also offers interesting artist talks and book launches on a regular basis.

GOETHESTRASSE
ZILBERMANGALLERY.COM

KADEWE

“Kaufhaus des Westens” (Department Store of the West), or KaDeWe for short, is more than just a shopping haven for lovers of designer fashion and gourmet food – it is an icon of West Berlin. Built in 1907, the historic building was gutted in a fire in World War II and then reopened in 1950. While Berlin was divided, the department store was a symbol of the free and affluent West.

TAUENTZHENSTRASSE 21-24

KADEWE.COM

VERBORGENES MUSEUM

Founded in 1986 the Hidden Museum made it its mission to follow the works and stories of female artists, that for one reason or another got discredited in the past. It is the first exhibition in the world, showing art exclusively by female artists from the past.

SCHLÜTERSTRASSE 70
DASVERBORGENEMUSEUM.DE

LITERATURHAUS

The landmarked building was completed in 1889 for Richard Hildebrandt, captain of the first German North Pole expedition. Since 1986, this literary institute has organized events, symposia, and exhibitions on contemporary literature.

FASANENSTRASSE 23
"KOHLHAAS & COMPANY" BOOKSHOP
CAFÉ RESTAURANT "WINTERGARTEN"
LITERATURHAUS-BERLIN.DE
KOHLHAASBUCH.DE

VILLA GRISEBACH

Villa Grisebach is one of the most prestigious auction houses for art and photography. Located right next to the Literaturhaus, the villa's doors are also open for public exhibitions.

FASANENSTRASSE 25
VILLA-GRISEBACH.DE

BERLINER KAFFEERÖSTEREI

You can smell the aroma of freshly roasted coffee from afar. The Berlin coffee roastery has been spoiling people with excellent coffee since 2001. Their selection of products has gotten bigger over time and the once small roastery is now a popular deli shop with a focus on cakes and chocolate.

UHLANDSTRASSE 173 / 174
BERLINER-KAFFEEROESTEREI.DE

BIER'S KU'DAMM 195

“Currywurst and champagne” – an unusual combination, yet it has been the trademark of this family business on the Ku’damm for 42 years. One of the neighborhood’s quirkiest addresses.

KURFÜRSTENDAMM 195

ANTIQUES IN SUAREZSTRASSE

If you are cultivating your interest in antiques, Suarezstraße in West Charlottenburg is the perfect place to do that. With over 30 different antique shops in one single street you have a lot of options to look for your personal object of desire.

SUAREZSTRASSE
SUAREZSTRASSE.COM

PARFUM LEHMANN

This historical perfume shop has been around since 1926. The focus lies on individuality, with high-quality essential oils and the option to create your own scent as well. Even perfumes from the 30's and 40's are still made up to this day.

KANTSTRASSE 106
PARFUM-INDIVIDUAL.DE

NOTES