TASTE WITH THE HEAD SOMMELIER

A guided tasting. A conversation. An experience.

Some tastings teach you about wine.

Others invite you into it.

This experience is an invitation to taste wine alongside someone who lives it every day. In an intimate setting, the Head Sommelier leads a carefully curated journey that goes beyond the glass — where terroir, choices, instinct and emotion come together to transform wine into memory.

Each session unfolds as a conversation rather than a lesson. Wines are presented with intention and context, stories emerge naturally, and there is space for questions, curiosity and discovery. Nothing is rushed. Every flavour has its moment, every detail its meaning.

This is a tasting shaped by attention — to origin, to craftsmanship, and to the subtle elements that distinguish a good wine from an unforgettable one.

For those who love wine, for those eager to learn more, or simply for those who appreciate the pleasure of tasting with someone who truly knows.
