

WINDJAMMER

TASTING MENU

The grandest of merchant ships, windjammers sailed their passengers and cargo to exotic ports throughout the world in the mid-1800s. More than two dozen square-rigged, ocean-going vessels called windjammers were proudly built here in Moncton, on the shores of the Petitcodiac River, merely a stone's throw away.

Asparagus Panna Cotta

Salmon roe, truffle salt, Local by Atta microgreens

Shrimp Kataifi

Ottoman Pastry, rolled shrimp, aglio olio emulsion, biber salsa, Acadian Emerald Caviar

Purity

Clear tomato soup, basil espuma, Espelette pepper, lime and ginger gel

Ravioli

Braised Australian Wagyu, rosemary butter, black truffle, spinach fritto misto

Granité

Sablefish

Local Cocagne Saffron and Dashi emulsion, Amherst wild rice, mango salsa, leek hay or

Rib Eye

5oz certified Angus, cocoa butter, mint and raisin gel, potato croissant, confit beet, and natural jus

Maple Dome

Gochujang salted caramel glaze, umami tuile, and Briggs Maple

Mignardises

Coffee and tea

$125 per person