WINE

History of wine in Serbia is vivid, it had its glory days and reveilles many times over.

Earliest known evidence of wine growing on this soil has roots back to the ancient time.

Wine culture of this region was shaped by Romans, ancient Greeks and Byzantines.

The high standards in the modern day's European wine culture opened a new chapter for Serbian wine makers. The word "vino" is a salute from a long-gone era, it is the echo from history to the future.
