Designed by European architect Peter Harradine, who has designed, constructed and/or supervised the construction and/or re-modeling of over 200 Golf Courses in Europe, Africa, Asia and the Middle East. His policy relies on the natural preservation of the existing site, thereby improving or enhancing characteristic attributes in order to create a unique course for that particular location.

In the heart of the links stands the magnificent English styled Clubhouse. Along with its restaurant and The Terrace facing the 27-hole golf course, the clubhouse includes other amenities such as a fully stocked Pro Shop, a floodlit Driving Range, a fitness center including Sauna & Jacuzzi.

The Mirage City Golf Club offers a unique golfing experience. Designed by architect Peter Harradine, the 18-hole Championship Golf Course and 9-hole Executive Course ensure golfers of all skill levels an unforgettable round.

The facility benefits from the 9-hole Executive Course for the ultimate warm up practice round.

Harmonious integration of the real estate and golf course into the surrounding landscape was of prime importance, thus lush, tree lined fairways, greens, white sand bunkers and countless water hazards blend together in perfect harmony. Meanwhile, several wide lakes heighten the technical difficulties of some holes and create a striking contrast with the desert neighborhood.

From the scenic opening shot to the daunting final hole, this once barren desert has been transformed into one of the most challenging golf courses in the region. Thirteen of the eighteen holes have water features that come into play.
