

Originally from Michigan, Kurt Brown was introduced to the game of golf by his father, at age four. Kurt competed in numerous junior tournaments in Michigan, playing on the Meijer and PowerBilt Junior Tours. Kurt spent his high school summers working at Flint Golf Club as a caddy.

In 2007, Kurt enrolled in the Professional Golf Management (PGM) Program at Ferris State University, where he learned all aspects of the golf industry. While attending Ferris State, he had the opportunity to complete internships at various facilities across the country, including Michigan, Oregon and Arizona.

After graduating, Kurt joined the professional staff at JW Marriott's Camelback Golf Club as a PGA Assistant Golf Professional, where he continues to grow his skill as a Golf Professional.

In 2015, Kurt received his certification of the Titleist Performance Institute (TPI) and is now a Level 2 TPI Golf and Power Coach. Kurt has worked under top PGA instructors, including Jason Witczak, Craig Bunker, and Albert Murdock. He is continuing his education on teaching the golf swing by attending PGA Teaching and Coaching Summits, as well as getting certified for club fittings of multiple golf companies.

Kurt continues to have great success with all ages and levels of golfers, as his engaging personality allows him to connect on a personal level. Kurt utilizes K-Vest and Hudl Technique Elite Video Analysis to help his students achieve their personal goals.
