Chef Sumit Pohkriyal brings exotic tastes and aromas of Indian cuisine to the Carlo IV tables. With a wealth of experience collected from early days cooking with his mother to Ashok Institute of Hospitality and Tourism Management in New Dehli to experience in five star establishments including Shangri La, Radisson or The Leela Palace and cooking for presidents and prime ministers, his dishes are inspired with passion for the art of high gastronomy. Skilled in both Dumpukth and Bukhara styles of food preparation his dishes are prepared with the highest quality ingredients, fresh and fragrant spices.
