SOUTH CITY CIDERWORKS Original Blend Hard Cider, San Bruno 9
After purchasing the Spottswoode property in 1972, it became obvious that the Novak family needed to replace their existing vineyard. With sound advice from friend and neighbor Ric Forman, the vineyard was replanted with Cabernet Sauvignon. The property would later attract amazing talent over the years including Tony Soter, Pam Starr, and Rosemary Cakebread. Fortunately, they also planted Cabernet’s white Bordeaux cousin, Sauvignon Blanc in the process. Mary Novak, the winery’s matriarch, proved to be their number one ambassador, especially for this varietal. It was important to keep this wine on hand for her year round. Thusly, “Mary’s allocation” was always carefully placed in her home cellar as her favorite wine to enjoy with friends and family. The 2016 vintage expresses what the team at Spottswoode has learned over 33 years crafting this varietal. Mary’s effusiveness is reflected in the lovely and complex forward fruit aromas that run the gamut from tropical to citrus. The wine has wonderful minerality and energy. Mary, who passed away in the fall of 2016, would be very pleased and proud.
EISELE ‘ALTAGRACIA’ 2016
SAUVIGNON BLANC, NAPA VALLEY

Since 1971 some of California’s most age worthy wines have been made from the Eisele Vineyard. The prized site sits in south east Calistoga protected by the palisades on an alluvial fan. It is a vineyard that has been under the stewardship of the Eisele Family, Joseph Phelps, Araujo and most recently Château Latour. Altagracia, named after Bart Araujo’s grandmother, provides an attractive second label for Eisele. The vines experience a softer north eastern exposure to the sun as neighboring vines give protection from the sun’s heat. Well-drained and deep cobblestone soil create this lush white Bordeaux style.

KONGSGAARD 2015
CHARDONNAY, NAPA VALLEY

John Kongsgaard, a 5th generation Napa native, presents an impressive resume as a lifelong vintner, with tenures at Stony Hill and other Napa properties. Mentored by acclaimed French Oenologist Michel Rolland and credited with creating Newton’s famous unfiltered Chardonnay, John is regarded as one of the valley’s top Chardonnay specialists. Chardonnay sourced from Hudson and Hyde Vineyards in Carneros, is among California’s best.
LARKMEAD 2016

TOCAI FRIULANO, NAPA VALLEY

Larkmead, a winery rich with history, powered by ambition and steadfast notions… Larry Solari from Tuscany, took over ownership in 1948 with his wife Polly, a third generation Californian born in Napa. Together they blossomed during Napa Valley’s post-prohibition era. Next generation Cam and Kate Solari Baker are committed to producing delicious Cabernet Sauvignon, but decided to make wine from a ½ acre of Tocai Friulano deemed 80+ years old and only producing 100-150 cases a vintage. The small block of vines versed with not only Tocai Friulano but Gewurztraminer and Gray Riesling separates Larry and Polly’s home from Larkmead Lane. Polly’s portrait of “pastel on paper” created in 1989 by Kate is on the front label displaying true serenity and a life well-lived at Larkmead Vineyards.

FAILLA KEEFER RANCH VINEYARD 2016

PINOT NOIR, RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

Failla began as a side project in 1998 as Failla-Jordan by Anne-Marie Failla and Ehren Jordan. They started with Viognier and Syrah, but developed a range of single vineyard Pinot Noir after the success of Keefer Ranch. Keefer Ranch was planted in 1988 by Marcy and Robert Keefer and was Failla’s original source of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. The wine always displays bright red fruit character and vibrancy, especially from this exceptional vintage.
ROBERT BIALE BLACK CHICKEN 2016
ZINFANDEL, NAPA VALLEY

Aldo Biale sold produce to locals in the post-Prohibition Napa Valley, but before long he began receiving orders for his giant jugs of Reserve Zinfandel. Orders were placed using the underground line, and Black Chicken became the code name for the locals’ new favorite sin, afraid of being frowned upon by the neighbors listening in. A crowd-pleasing, hedonistic Zinfandel with juicy acidity.

PRIDE MOUNTAIN VINEYARDS 2016
CABERNET FRANC, NAPA-SONOMA COUNTY

In 1989 Jim and Carolyn Pride purchased historic Summit Ranch at the top of Spring Mountain Road where they found 42 acres of dry-farmed Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Chardonnay on the original 180-acre ranch. Uniquely, the Napa/Sonoma County line runs across the crush pad and disappears into the caves providing visitors the chance to enjoy both famed wine growing regions simultaneously. Second-generation owners Suzanne Pride Bryan and Steve Pride took over for their parents in 2004. They continue the tradition of award-winning wines and hospitality with help from winemaker Sally Johnson Blum and the entire Pride team.
LAGIER MEREDITH 2014
SYRAH, MT. VEEDER

Carole Meredith and Steve Lagier began their story of Lagier Meredith when they bought land on Mt.Veeder in 1986. Dr. Carole Meredith, a professor at UC Davis for 22 years, specialized in research of grape genetics and DNA typing. One of Carole’s many accomplishments include correctly identifying that the Croatian grape Crljencak Kasteljanski is actually identical to Zinfandel. Steve was already well-versed in the winemaking department after his 14-year stint at Robert Mondavi Winery and making wine for his friends. Together, they are the perfect team.

FISHER VINEYARDS ‘COACH INSIGNIA’ 2013
CABERNET SAUVIGNON, NAPA VALLEY

Founded in 1973 by Fred and Juelle Fisher, Fisher Vineyards is a small family winery dedicated to producing handcrafted wines from the ground up. Inspired by the passion and founding vision of their parents, three second-generation siblings have since returned home to lead the winery and care for the estate vineyards in both Calistoga and Sonoma County. Coach Insignia honors the Fisher Family tradition of craftsmanship, innovation and style first represented in classic cars of the 20th century with Body by Fisher. Since 1984, the family has taken great pride in delivering the same quality through its flagship Coach Insignia, Cabernet Sauvignon.
In 1991, Rick and Sally Jones purchased a picturesque vineyard in southeastern Calistoga. Jones Family Vineyards remains family run with the support of his two daughters, Stephanie and Heather. A second label called ‘The Sisters” has appropriately originated over the years to model a family bond. The Jones’ have combined the vineyard expertise of Jim Barbour along with the winemaking talent of Thomas Rivers Brown. The 2008 Cabernet brings home a well-rounded richness of fruit with a touch of earth and dusty tannins resulting in density and grip.

A veteran winemaker in the Napa Valley for 52 vintages, Ric Forman has had an illustrious career as founding winemaker at Sterling followed by establishing Newton Vineyard. One could say that Ric’s true achievement was a dream come true capturing a hillside plot at the base of Howell Mountain in St. Helena to call his own. Forman Vineyard, a deep gravel clos, produces a consistently classic Bordeaux style and has been for the last 35 years. Ric, in the company of his son Toby, is ever so vigilant at maintaining this tradition and renowned quality.
ANOMALY 2014

CABERNET SAUVIGNON, ST. HELENA

Anomaly is located at the base of the Mayacamas Mountains and is known as one of Napa Valley’s smallest wineries. Owners Steve and Linda Goldfarb started off as “budding garagistes” until they handed over the reins to winemaker Mark Porembski. Mark focuses solely on Bordeaux varietals in their certified organic eight acre vineyard. The 2014 vintage is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, and Petit Verdot. As the wine unfolds in the glass it shows a unique length of deep, complex floral notes, tightly wound blackberry fruit, and firm tannins.

GRACE FAMILY ‘BLANK’ 2015

CABERNET SAUVIGNON, RUTHERFORD

In 1976, Dick and Ann Grace planted what is now believed to be the oldest organic vineyard in the Napa Valley. The first vintage of this one hundred percent Cabernet Sauvignon was 1978. Grace Family Vineyards produces less than 500 cases annually. Often thought of as the first cult wine, these wines are purchased by restaurants and connoisseurs around the world. Dick and Ann Grace spend approximately three months out of each year with some of the world’s most financially challenged young people. The Grace’s give assistance in the fields of healthcare and education. Their hands on approach is commendable and they challenge each of us to be compassionate caretakers of those people who are less fortunate so that we might have a more harmonious, just and peaceful planet.
