Courtyard San Francisco Airport/Oyster Point Waterfront Upgrades Guest Rooms With New CYnergy Package

Rooms at San Francisco airport hotel now boast new bedding, furniture, décor to satisfy travelers' evolving desires

South San Francisco, CA – Travelers headed to the Bay Area this summer are in for an extra special touch of comfort when they stay at the Courtyard San Francisco Airport/Oyster Point Waterfront.

The San Francisco airport hotel has just completed a major room renovation project that adds intuitive features and thoughtful touches to already comfortable accommodations. Reimagined rooms proudly show off Courtyard's CYnergy design package that offers stylish décor with pops of color to energize.

Rooms at the hotel near SFO received new bedding, lighting, vinyl, carpets and drapes. Vanity counters and cabinetry also were completely redone.

Stylish new sofas add a touch of color to rooms fashioned in a tone-on-tone décor to relax weary travelers.

The first hotel in the Bay Area to feature the new décor, the Courtyard San Francisco Airport/Oyster Point Waterfront is the ideal stop for travelers looking to visit San Francisco or nearby wine country. Visitors can tour the attractions of San Francisco by taking a free shuttle to the CalTrain station every day as well as the Union Square trolley on Friday and Saturday.

San Francisco is home to the world's most famous crossing, the fabled Golden Gate Bridge. Other popular attractions include Fisherman's Wharf and Chinatown. The wharf offers fresh seafood, shopping and nautical attractions. Chinatown is host to oriental art and gifts as well as many restaurants.

Children will enjoy the Exploratorium, which features interactive displays that explain science and language.

A terrific day trip for Bay Area travelers is a drive through Napa Valley. The valley has something for everyone, including wonderful scenery, special events, delicious food and a plethora of wineries to tour and enjoy.
