While visiting tables in the restaurant, I was approached by a loyal Elite Member. He explained that he loved staying at the hotel, but ate out because he was vegan and we didn't offer a lot of options. I asked him to come back the following evening and ask for me, I would work on something that I was sure he would enjoy. The end result was this vegan veggie burger. He loved it and often would ask for it on following visits to the hotel. I am certain that you will enjoy it as much as he did, whether you are vegan or not!
