WELCOME TO MONTREAL

OUR LITTLE SECRETS OF MONTREAL

1. Lafontaine Park
The perfect place for sports, picnics, friends or family activities, and romantic outings.
2. Lachine Canal
An oasis for boaters, bicycle lovers or for a simple stroll.
3. Gibeau Orange Julep
Known by locals as “the big orange”, it has the classic flavor of the 50s and 60s. Opened 24hrs during the summer, offers the best orange juice in town.
4. Bonsecours Terraces
Four terraces with stunning views of the city and the river, this is the place for happy hour and festive evenings.
5. Duluth Street
It's the kingdom of Bring Your Own Wine restaurants.
6. Atwater Market
Open all year, the market offers a great variety of fresh and local exclusive products.
7. Laurier & Bernard Streets
Montrealers’ hideout where restaurants, cafes and shops come together in a stylish and cosmopolitan atmosphere.
8. Sainte-Anne-de Bellevue (Ste-Anne’s)
To leave the city without leaving the island, couples will find the perfect place for a small escape along the shores of the Deux-Montagnes lake.
9. Jean-Drapeau Beach
The ideal place to bask in the sun or indulge in sports activities with family or friends.
10. St-Viateur & Fairmount Bagels
Our front desk supervisor recommends St-Viateur Bagels if you like the classics. For more varieties, try Fairmount Bagels. And yes, they are both better than in New York City!
11. Nelligan Terrace & Suite 701
For 5@9 in heights, in a chic but casual ambiance, these two terraces are high in colors (sunset).
12. New City Gas
If you’re a fan of “party”, electronica music and nightlife... New City Gas is a “must stop” to go dancing or for an enriched and flavourful happy hour.
