Inspired by both time and temperature, the experimental culinary outlet debuts an open kitchen concept and chef's counter coupled with a sophisticated five-course, pre-fixe menu featuring a daily rotation of seasonal ingredients

(PALM DESERT, CA; December 14, 2018)— T&T Innovation Kitchen – a new culinary concept helmed by Executive Chef Peter Smith – is now open at JW Marriott Desert Springs Resort & Spa. The experimental culinary outlet provides a canvas for creativity through a daily-changing menu inspired by the time and temperature of the day (hence T&T) and celebrates the raw talent of both new and longstanding chefs to contribute a unique recipe during menu development each day. There is also an unconventional entrance to the tucked away restaurant, which leads guests through the Rockwood Grill resort kitchen and in through the back of the restaurant– a nod to the anticipation and mystery of speakeasy restaurants. The restaurant is seen as the first of three phases of the new luxury experience at JW Marriott Desert Springs Resort & Spa. By the end of 2019, the resort expects to unveil 884 newly renovated guest rooms including 50 new suites and a comprehensive lobby renovation.

"T&T disrupts traditional notions of what a hotel restaurant should be," says Executive Chef Peter Smith. "We are pleased to bring a new level of culinary engagement to the Coachella Valley."

T&T Innovation Kitchen is open for reservations on Friday and Saturdays and can accommodate up to 35 guests for dinner service and up to 50 guests for a reception with access to a private outdoor patio. Private group reservations are available seven days a week. Advanced reservations are required and can be arranged online through OpenTable or by calling 760-341-1813.
