

Golf Club at Champions Circle

Staying at the Dallas/Fort Worth Marriott Hotel and Golf Club at Champions Circle not only means luxury and comfort, but also puts you within walking distance to a Jay Morrish-designed championship golf course. This par 72 course is set on scenic rolling hills with winding creeks and 100 year old oak and beechwood trees. The Golf Club at Champions Circle natural obstacles and terrain provides golfers of all skill levels with a challenge.

If you are just beginning to golf or could use a bit of help perfecting your golf swing, PGA and LPGA certified instructors are available to help. Practicing is made easy with the two Tifdwarf putting greens found on property. The club also can accommodate for large group outings and is a perfect location for a National Golf School vacation.
