

Welcome to Ipanema,

The authentic Brazilian Churrascaria.

Borrowed from the pampas region of Brazil, churrascaria, or Brazilian barbeque, is a style of cooking developed by early South American gauchos. These cowboys gathered at the end of long days with their families and slow roasted meats over an open fire. Their evening dinners featured numerous meats carved tableside

At Ipanema, the Brazilian churrascaria, meat is prepared and served as in days gone by, keeping the characteristic taste of each cut. We invite you to enjoy the delicious preparations of our gaucho chefs, along with our gourmet salad bar and authentic Brazilian side dishes.

CLASSIC COCKTAIL

Caipirinha – our Signature

QR 69

The Caipirinha, pronounce 'Kai-pee-reen-Yah' and translates as 'little countryside drink'

Though to have originated in Sao Paulo – Brazil, it is no longer simply Brazil's national drink, but has now become a great classic cocktail around the world.

Some believe that it was initially prepared as a medicine to ease the effects of the Spanish Flu towards the end of World War I. With the original recipe consisting of cachaça, green lemon, honey and garlic. The green lemon was used for its high concentration of Vitamin C and cachaça contained the alcohol needed to expedite the absorption of the vitamins into the organism. Sometime, somewhere, someone decided to replace honey and garlic with sugar and ice and thus the modern day caipirinha was born.
