Tickets should be purchased upon entering the streetcar at the payment station in the middle of the vehicle. Tickets purchased will be valid for two (2) hours & will be honored for transfer to any Seattle Streetcar or King County Metro bus.

The following forms of payment are also accepted to ride the Seattle Streetcar; Metro Pass, Puget Pass, Flexpass, GO Pass, U-Pass, Visitor Pass, Regional Reduced Fare Permit (with monthly or annual sticker), and active Metro bus transfer slips.

Riders must be ready to show their ticket, pass or transfer if a fare inspector or transit police ask to see proof of payment.

When riding please remember the following:

- Streetcar does NOT stop at every stop automatically.
- You MUST signal the operator by pushing the vertical or horizontal yellow strip on the high floor section of the car or push the buttons on the door prior to the platform you are requesting.
- Streetcar will stop for passengers at stop platforms.
- Streetcars have low floors for easy boarding of wheelchairs.
- Bicycles are allowed on Streetcars in the low floor section only.
- Guide dogs and companion animals are allowed on leash only.
