

KOH SAMUI TRAVEL TIPS

1. Fisherman's Village Samui

Embellished with a wide selection of authentic seaside specialty restaurants, the Fishman's Village is a great place to experience traditional seaside cultures in Koh Samui. The beautiful landscape and location of the village allow travelers to enjoy boutique shopping with affordable prices and see the gorgeous view of Koh Phangan.

Distance from Sheraton Samui Resort: 6 km / 15 minutes by car.

2. Ang Thong National Marine Park

For travelers who seek for the thrill of an adventure, Ang Thong National Marine Park boasts rich biodiversity on a scenic archipelago. With just a boat ride from Koh Samui, the national park invites those who love history and saltwater sports such as snorkeling and diving.

3. Big Buddha Temple on Koh Samui

The Big Buddha Temple is a popular tourist attraction near Koh Samui's northeastern corner. Symbolizing steadfastness, purity, and enlightenment, the temple evokes curiosity amongst travelers near and far. The temple welcomes its visitors with a calm atmosphere and religious artifacts.

Distance from Sheraton Samui Resort: 9 km / 20 minutes by car.

4. Namuang Waterfall

Located along the Gulf of Thailand, Koh Samui is also home to breathtaking scenery and ravishing waterfalls. Often called the "Purple Waterfall", the Namuang Waterfall lives up to its name with a unique purple shade on its rocky faces. The majestic waterfall flows down into a naturally formed pool, creating both a therapeutic and peaceful swimming area for visitors.

Distance from Sheraton Samui Resort: 17 km / 29 minutes by car.

5. Hin Ta and Hin Yai

Hin Ta and Hin Yai A natural wonder along the coastline between Lamai and Hua Thanon, Hin Ta and Hin Yai is often a source of talk amongst Koh Samui locals and tourists. The unique rock formation is named after a legend where an old grandmother and grandfather had perished in the hands of the sea after setting sail to ask for the hand of their future daughter-in-law. Hin Ta and Hin Yai stand to this day to remind visitors of their tragic tale.

Distance from Sheraton Samui Resort: 9 km / 16 minutes by car.

6) Lad Koh Viewpoint

Lad Koh Viewpoint in Koh Samui is a popular hotspot for day trip tours with its easily accessible location and picturesque spot. Visitors can also enjoy the unforgettable view while having a hearty meal from a selection of restaurants. Showcasing Koh Samui's hilly terrain, Lad Koh is ideal for watching the sunrise.

Distance from Sheraton Samui Resort: 1 km / 2 minutes by car.

Visit the link below for more information:

<https://traveler.marriott.com/tips-and-trends/what-to-do-koh-samui-travel/>

SHERATON SAMUI RESORT

86 Moo 3, Chaweng Noi Beach, Bophut, Koh Samui, Surat Thani 84320 Thailand
T +66 (0)77 422 020 | F +66 (0)77 422 396 | www.sheraton.com/samui