

FRANZ & FLORA WIEN RESTAURANT / BAR

Franz&Flora can be anything and everything!

Something different for everyone, and perhaps it can be something else for you tomorrow than it is today. Franz&Flora is the spirit of our time, an attitude towards life and a declaration of love to the city of Vienna. Gastronomically, it embodies the design concept of our hotel, "Nature goes Urban".

Franz is the Austrian emperor who loved to go hunting and enjoyed his Kaiserschmarrn and smoked pork with sauerkraut and dumplings. However, Franz is also the lovable Viennese boy, made famous by Christine Nöstlinger in her "Tales of Franz". Today, Franz (which is still one of the most popular Austrian names) is probably a typical guy roaming the streets of urban Vienna, uncomplicated and down-to-earth. Perhaps he runs a food truck, or he's a graffiti artist, or a jack of all trades. Either way, he presents himself like he prefers his food - authentic, straightforward and unpretentious.

Flora represents the goddess of flowers and of youth, as well as the Prater which is situated just outside our front door. The Prater was created as a space for rest and recreation for the nobility, later it was opened for all who were in search of peace and tranquility. Flora is the beauty and fragility of nature and the feelings of calm, freedom, relaxation and joy it instills in us. Flora is a sense of coming home, she is creativity, a free spirit, a feeling of constant renewal and change. She is feminine and gentle, the origin of life!

Franz&Flora represents an innovative approach to classic Viennese cuisine, combining tradition with contemporary, health-conscious trends; a fusion of locally sourced products and international influences.
