

Astor Lounge

Afternoon tea is said to have been introduced in the mid 1800's by The Duchess of Bedford. She enjoyed gathering friends over a cup of tea and a slice of bread and butter to stave off hunger between lunch and dinner. These occasions became a favorite pastime of many luminaries.

Caroline Astor adopted this tradition at the St Regis New York. For her, Afternoon was a joyful occasion and an opportunity to host. It was an honor to be invited to Mrs. Astor's Afternoon tea gatherings as a prelude to her grand galas.

Today, time for tea remains a quintessential St Regis ritual, offering guest an impeccable selection of fine teas and refreshments in an inviting and intimate setting.

Please enjoy our unique selection of Sloane teas, canapés and desserts specially created for this wonderful occasion.
